Close to your heart ... the Home

Some people may feel that their own home is the only place suitable for the cremated body and memories of their loved one. In today's transient society, memorial urns and chests enable families to take the deceased with them whenever or wherever they move. Choose a memorial product or urn that will add to the beauty of your home, while maintaining the durability to stand the test of time.

Unto dust you return ... the Earth

For some, the thought of returning to the soil brings comfort. Perhaps a beautiful garden offers a spot reminiscent of your loved one while still giving you a place to visit. You might leave the cremated remains in one place, or several areas cherished by the deceased. Consider a biodegradable bag in a simple birch box to contain the cremated body until burial or scattering, later using the box to store memorabilia.

A place to visit ... the Cemetery

While not always thought of as a cremation option, burial or interment in a cemetery is the traditional choice of many families. Whether the cremated remains are buried or inurned in a glass-front niche in a columbarium, there are many products available for memorializing your loved one including urns, picture frames and bud vases.

Back to the beginning ... the Sea

Cremation began to be a commonly chosen means of disposition when people realized that sea scattering was a means of returning to one's roots – back to water from which life began. The majestic beauty and rhythm of the waves at sea can aid in the healing celebration of a special life. Choose a fitting theme for an urn and after the cremated body is scattered at sea, a beautiful work of art will come home with you as a memento.

Cloisonné

Elegant Artistry

An ancient art form invented by the French and perfected by the Chinese, cloisonné predates stained glass art. Made from brass, copper and colored enamel, cloisonné is crafted by hand and the finished item is fired in a kiln and gilded. As a result of this meticulous process, every cloisonné piece is a beautiful, durable and unique work of art.

Swan Lake Companion Urn

Timeless Designs

Each crafted from a solid block, natural marble urns offer the durability of stone and singular beauty forged from the earth itself. Because of the unique, natural process in which marble is created, no two pieces are exactly alike and may vary in color intensity, shade or veining patterns. Traditionally associated with palaces and royalty, marble suggests the contents are of regal significance.

Personalization

Honor Their Name

Without personalization, an urn or memorial chest may be seen as just a container. By taking advantage of a myriad of personalization choices, you can make the urn as individual and unique as your loved one. By adding names, dates, memorable phrases, cloisonné appliqués, standard engraved art or custom designs, each urn or memorial chest can be turned into an enduring memorial of someone's life.

Additional charges may apply for personalization options.

Text Options

Names and dates can be added to more urns in any language. An additional line such as a memorable phrase or tribute is an appropriate addition for a full-size marble, stainless steel, hardwood or simplicity urn.

- Marble / Cultured Marble – Full-size, keepsake and miniature marble urns can be engraved on the top or sides.
- Cloisonné – Our engraving department will choose the best location for engraving on all cloisonné urns unless the family has a specific request.
- Wood / Memorial Chests - Most wood urns can be engraved on the side or top.
- Stainless Steel – These can be engraved on the top or sides.
- Brass - We are limited on what we can engrave on brass urns. Please contact us for further details.
- Eco-friendly – Eco-friendly urns cannot be engraved.
- Jewelry – Jewelry pendants cannot be engraved.
- Leather - Leather urns cannot be engraved.
